Angelico Sacred Music is pleased to announce its 2027 St. Cecilia Scholarship!

Applicants for this $1,000 scholarship must be a practicing Catholic pursuing a Bachelor or Masters Degree in music during the Spring 2027 semester.

Compositions must fulfill the following requirements:

- The principal language of the text must be English.
- The principal text of the composition may be any prayer of the Catholic Church, or any text derived from Sacred Scripture.
- The piece must be 3 to 7 minutes long.
- The piece must be a choral composition with some polyphonic elements within it. The composition may be a cappella, or it may include a piano/organ part.

The submission deadline for this scholarship is 11:59 p.m. Pacific Time on May 15th. Applicants will email a PDF file and MIDI recording of their composition to admin@angelicosacredmusic.com. Applicants must also submit verification of their Spring 2027 class schedule with a PDF or screenshot that clearly displays their name and their classes. Only one composition per applicant will be accepted. To have a blind, merit-based competition, applicants should please refrain from printing their name on the PDF of their submitted sheet music.

The submitted compositions will be reviewed by a panel of judges (which will not include Angelico's Executive Director, Ryan Everson), and the winner of the scholarship will be publicly announced on July 1, 2027.

Please email any questions to Ryan Everson at reverson@angelicosacredmusic.com. We wish all student composers the best of luck and a blessed experience as they create new pieces of musical art for the glory of God!
